

Don't Write a Check

Don't shortchange your daughter by writing a check. . .

By writing a check to your daughter's troop you are not allowing her the opportunity to participate in the Product Sale Activity. Your daughter will be missing out on a valuable learning experience.

Remember Girl Scouting: Builds Girls of Courage, Confidence & Character ...who make the world a better place.

Participating in the Product Sale Activity is an experience that can teach your daughter many important life skills such as:

- Communication & Interpersonal Skills
- Decision Making Skills
- Money Management
- Teamwork
- Goal Setting
- Girl Planning
- Leadership
- ...and a lot more!

Through the years Girl Scouts "Make It Count" by using their resources to make a difference in their community and the world. By participating in the Product Sale Activity girls have the opportunity to:

Make It Count, Make It Matter, Make It Work
By Discovering issues in their community and Connecting with community organizations girls can Take Action by using their resources to address the concerns of their community and the world.

Supporting your daughter by encouraging her participation in the Product Sale Activity will give her more than just a monetary donation...

It will give her skills that will last a lifetime...
